

"WHAT WILL YOU DO?"

Ask Kids and ready for its own Perspective ,

■ Your friend wants to play with your favorite toy, but you don't want to share it. What will you do?

- a) Share the toy and find another activity to do together.
- b) Explain to your friend why you don't want to share the toy.
- c) Offer to take turns playing with the toy.
- d) Refuse to share the toy and play with it alone.

■ During recess, you notice a classmate sitting alone and looking sad. What will you do?

- a) Go over and ask if they want to play with you and your friends.
- b) Ignore them and continue playing with your friends.
- c) Tell a teacher about the situation.
- d) Laugh with your friends about the classmate sitting alone.

■ Someone in your class is being teased by others. What will you do?

- a) Join in and tease them too.
- b) Stand up for the person being teased and tell the others to stop.
- c) Ignore the situation and stay out of it.
- d) Tease the person to fit in with the others.

■ Your friend borrowed a book from you and accidentally ripped a page. What will you do?

- a) Get angry and demand they replace the book.
- b) Tell them it's okay and not to worry about it.
- c) Ask them to be more careful next time.
- d) Ignore the ripped page and pretend you didn't notice.

■ You're playing a game with your friends, but one of them keeps cheating. What will you do?

- a) Cheat too to make it fair.
- b) Ignore it and keep playing.
- c) Tell your friend to stop cheating because it's not fair to everyone else.
- d) Stop playing the game altogether.