

AFRICA

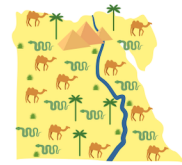

Fun fact for kids

Africa is home to a wide variety of animals, including lions, elephants, giraffes, zebras, and rhinoceroses.

Located in Tanzania, Mount Kilimanjaro is the tallest mountain in Africa

The Nile River, the longest river in the world

The Sahara Desert in North Africa is the largest hot desert in the world

Egypt, located in North Africa, is famous for its ancient civilization and iconic pyramids

Safari tours in Africa offer tourists the chance to observe wildlife in their natural habitats.

Baobab trees, also known as "upside-down trees" due to their unique shape

African penguins live along the coast of South Africa and Namibia.

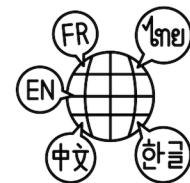

Traditional African music often features drumming

Madagascar, off Africa's coast, hosts exclusive wildlife not found elsewhere.

Africa is a continent of contrasts, from vast savannas to dense rainforests and sprawling cities.

The African continent has over 2,000 languages spoken among its people.