

EARTH SURFACE

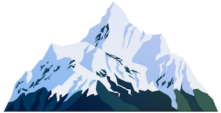

Fun fact for kids

About 71% of the Earth's surface is covered by water, primarily oceans.

Mount Everest, at 8,848 meters (29,029 feet), is the highest point on Earth.

The mid-ocean ridge is the world's longest mountain range at over 65,000 kilometers.

Earth's surface is approximately 70% water, primarily in the form of oceans, seas, lakes, and rivers.

Mount Everest, located in the Himalayas, is the tallest mountain on Earth's surface, standing at 29,029 feet (8,848 meters) above sea level.

The Nile River in Africa holds the title of the world's longest river, stretching approximately 4,135 miles (6,650 kilometers) in length.

The Pacific Ring of Fire is a horseshoe-shaped area around the edges of the Pacific Ocean where a large number of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions occur due to tectonic plate movements.

The Atacama Desert in Chile is one of the driest places on Earth. Some parts of this desert have not received any significant rainfall for hundreds of years.