

North America

Fun fact for kids

North America consists mainly of three large countries: Canada, the United States, and Mexico.

The tallest mountain in North America is Denali in Alaska

The Grand Canyon in Arizona, USA, is one of the most famous and largest canyons in the world.

North America is home to the Great Lakes, the largest group of freshwater lakes in the world by total area.

The Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor was a gift from France

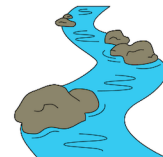

Niagara Falls, on the USA-Canada border, is one of the world's most famous and powerful waterfalls.

Hollywood in Los Angeles, USA, is famous as the center of the film and entertainment industry.

North America is home to the American bison, the largest land animal in the continent.

The Mississippi River, running through the United States, is one of the longest rivers in the world.

The bald eagle, a majestic bird of prey, is the national symbol of the United States

North America is where you can find the world's longest undefended border between Canada and the United States.

Canada, in North America, is known for its vast wilderness and friendly people.