

River Ganges

Fun fact for kids

The River Ganges is the longest river in India.

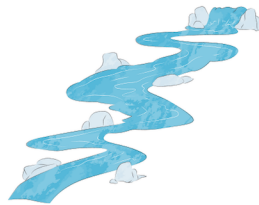

It originates from the Himalayas.

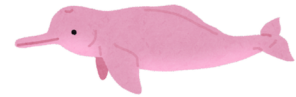

The Ganges is considered a sacred river in Hinduism.

Millions of people bathe in the Ganges during religious festivals.

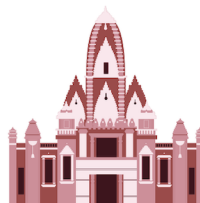

The river provides water to over 400 million people.

The Ganges is home to the endangered Ganges river dolphin.

The Ganges Delta is the largest river delta in the world.

The city of Varanasi, one of the oldest cities in the world, is located on its banks.

The Ganges Basin is one of the most fertile regions on Earth.

Pilgrims travel from all over India to bathe in the Ganges during festivals like Kumbh Mela.

Pollution is a major concern for the Ganges due to industrial waste and sewage.

The Ganges is home to various species of fish, turtles, and birds.