

Tiger Fun fact for kids

Stripes

Tiger stripes are as unique as human fingerprints, offering camouflage in tall grass during hunting.

Territorial

Male tigers claim territories of 60-100 sq. miles (155-259 sq. km), while females' territories are 10-40 sq. miles (26-104 sq. km).

Playful Nature

Tiger cubs, like domestic cats, play to develop hunting skills essential for survival.

Variety of Prey

Tigers hunt various animals like deer, wild boar, and even smaller predators such as leopards and pythons.

Powerful Jaws

A tiger's bite is one of the strongest among all big cats, capable of crushing bones with ease.

Speed & Agility

Tigers: Big but fast. Speed: 40 mph (64 km/h). Leap: 30 ft (9 m).