

Vultures

Fun fact for kids

Vultures clean up carcasses, preventing disease spread and balancing ecosystems.

Andean condors' wingspans exceed 10 feet, aiding effortless soaring on thermals.

Vultures regurgitate food to flee fast and repel predators with its smell.

23 vulture species worldwide, from condors to Egyptian vultures.

Vultures are often seen in groups, known as a wake or committee when feeding.

Vultures: Symbols of death and renewal, revered or reviled across cultures.

Vultures are among the longest-lived birds, with some species capable of living for several decades in the wild.

Vultures: revered for renewal or linked to decay, depending on culture.